MANAGEMENT REPORT

Director Falcone announced that the façade project at Will has been completed. The contractor has moved their equipment offsite and is wrapping up the finishing touches.
Director Falcone reported that only one bid was returned for the elevator project at Will, and it was beyond the project budget. He said the City Engineering department would review the specifications of the project and would send it out to bid again in the spring.

Director Falcone announced that Staff Development Day was held November 22 and it was successful.

Director Falcone updated the Board on the Library’s 2020 budget request proposal. The deadline is January 9 and the Library would have it prepared before then.

Director Falcone announced that Deputy Director Thaler had arranged for the popular tax preparation service VITA to return to the Riverfront Library for this tax season.

Tr. Saraceno arrived at 7:07 p.m.

Budget. Our Operating Budget request was submitted to the City on January 9. We also submitted seven individual requests for Capital Improvement funds.

Transitions. YPL is in the midst of major personnel changes. Just after the retirement of Director Ed Falcone in early January, Will Branch Administrator Christian Zabriskie departed for a new position as Executive Director of the Onondaga County Public Library System. This came on the heels of Christian and his business partner at Urban Librarians Unite, Lauren Comito, being named Library Journal’s Librarians of the Year. Aurora Cruz, formerly Head of Adult Services at Riverfront Library, is taking over as Branch Administrator at Will. Interviews are being conducted to fill the Adult Services position.

Art Gallery Update. Our 2nd Artist-in-Residence, Shanequa Benitez has finished up a successful residency and our next exhibit will feature her work, some of which was created during her tenure. The opening reception will be on the evening of February 6, the first Gallery Hop of 2020. In addition to the NEO Society, Curator Haifa Bint-Kadi has been developing creative arts programming for adults and families, including Art Stories and Folk Art Fridays. Haifa will also be leading mosaic workshops where participants will collaborate to create a mosaic that will be on permanent display at Riverfront.

Inauguration. The Riverfront Auditorium was the site chosen for inauguration ceremonies held on New Year’s Day for Mayor Mike Spano, City Council Members Michael Breen, Shanae Williams and Tasha Diaz, and City Court Judges Elena Goldberg Velazquez and Brendan McGrath. Kudos to Russell Martinez and the custodial staff, Branch Administrator Sandy Amoyaw and Administrative Assistant Lawrence Farah who worked hard to ensure that this important event ran without a hitch.

GRAND TOTAL PROGRAMMING

The Riverfront Library is well positioned to impact our community and it continues to play an important role in the personal stories of our patrons. For some, it provides the spark that ignites a life-long love of reading, while for others, it’s the repository of the information they need to take some significant step in life, whether they wish to start a business, to plan a wedding, to buy a first home, to prepare for retirement, or just to take a well-planned vacation. Every single day, we transform our patrons’ lives. We do so, of course, through our books and other materials—empowering patrons also through various classes and programs --- but also through patrons’ interactions with the members of our staff. There is a special connection that occurs when a patron is being heard and helped. (It can be something as simple as the welcoming smile felt by a patron who is just looking for a safe place to sit and rest.)

One of our regular patrons has shared with us the following appreciation of the Library’s effect on her life: “I started using the library because I went back to school. I’m in the library every day. When I come in, I’m always welcomed with a beautiful smile and warm greetings, and always asked how I’m doing and if there is anything I might need help with.....I’m getting to build a personal relationship with staff and that keeps me coming back.”

Reference and Adult Service Department

The Reference and Adult Services Department continues to offer basic and intermediate computer instruction to the public, including classes on email, PowerPoint, Microsoft Word, and Excel. The staff also provides regular one-on-one training in the use of the online catalog and other databases available through the YPL website.

The Riverfront Library staff are always going the extra mile, making a positive impact on the community we serve. Anne Campbell received a beautiful email from a patron, thanking her for a small act of kindness, and John Favareau received an email thanking him for some recommendations that he made to a patron and that proved to be extremely helpful.

The Riverfront Library plays an integral role in the academic success of Yonkers students. In October, students from Yonkers High School who are enrolled in the school’s International Baccalaureate Program attended various orientation workshops here in order to learn how the Library can assist them in meeting the requirements of the rigorous I.B. curriculum. And we wish to extend special thanks to part-time librarian Robin Osborne for overseeing the Teen Learning Center, a homework-help program for teens which provides them with access to laptops, tablets, homework resources, and Microsoft Windows applications.

October was Hispanic Heritage Month, and Arnaldo Torres, Elyse Schreiber, and Ana Gantzer worked diligently to organize a most successful Night of Salsa as well as a Tortillas for Tacos event.

Continuing to offer our patrons programs in genealogical research, Mary Robison most recently coordinated a special presentation by Meryl Schumacher about DNA testing and its role in family history research.

We are happy with the success that the job-search coach, Roseanne Amoils, continues to have, and we are especially gratified to learn that patrons have returned to thank her for the help that she’s given them in securing employment.

Holiday cheer was spread by the staff with holiday movies and several programs, including Gift-Wrapping, Holiday Crafts, Frosted Holders, Personalized Holiday Candles, Holiday Paper Flowers and the Giving Plate. The talented Riverfront Library Knitting Group knitted red and green squares for the Knit A Square program this quarter. And Eileen Fusco organized the quarter’s teen programs, including --as well as teen book giveaways and Build the Oreo Cookie----a program on New Year’s Resolutions.

Children’s Department

Highlights of our Children’s Department programs during the quarter include Baby Signing Time, Fitness Fun for Kids, and Mad Science with Science Dad, the Legorama Club, the Kids’ Halloween Costume Party, the STEM Leaf Painting program and the two STEM Workshops: Stop Motion Animation and Hour of Code Challenge. The Department also screened several films during the quarter, including Toy Story.

The weekly story time in the Children’s Department continues to be popular. A charming new reading program for kids is Puppy Love Time, where the kids sign up to read to Cooper, an English sheepdog.

There were two school visits during the quarter. Students from Martin Luther King, Jr. Academy and the Cesar Chavez School came for library orientation and to sign up for library cards also.

Children’s Department librarian Ralph Guida is a notary public and certified 161 notarizations during the quarter.

Community Engagement

The Library’s outreach efforts during the quarter include our participation in the following community events: Oktoberfest 2019, the South Broadway BID’s Tree Lighting, the YMCA’s Basketball Anti-Bullying program, the Barnes & Noble Book fair, and the Untermeyer Performing Arts Council’s Christmas Outreach. The Riverfront Library’s role in all of these programs and others throughout the quarter is the reason why the Library is more than books.

Professional Development

The Riverfront Library staff continues to work hard to update their professional skills in order to improve their service to the public. The following meetings and workshops were attended by members of staff during the last quarter.

Arnaldo Torres and Elyse Schreiber attended the ComicCon convention at Manhattan’s Javits Center. The ComicCon program displays the latest in comics, graphic novels, anime manga, video games and movies.

Mary Robison gave a talk and PowerPoint presentation, entitled Introduction to Genealogy Resources at the Riverfront Library, to the DeHaven on the Hudson seniors group at their Lunch and Learn December meeting.

Eileen Fusco attended the New York Library Association’s annual conference, participating in many programs to keep her library skills up-to-date.

Ana Gantzer attended the 3rd annual Latino Culture and Identity Fair.

Christine Bitetti was interviewed for the November/December 2019 issue of Muse.

Aurora Cruz attended WLS’s annual meeting, she also participated in the meeting of the Yonkers Reentry panel program.

Meetings attended during the quarter by the Branch Administrator include the meetings of the Yonkers Salvation Army Advisory Board, the Mayor’s African American Advisory Board, the Barnes & Noble Book fair, Saint Peter’s Daycare Advisory Board, the Homelessness Round Table, and the South Broadway BID Tree Lighting, as well as attendance at the Puerto Rico Heritage Day, a Kwanza celebration, and the Christmas Outreach program of the Untermeyer Performing Arts Council.

Many of our accomplishments of the past years in our stellar library system are due to Ed Falcone, our Director, and we owe him a tremendous debt of gratitude and wish him much happiness in his retirement.

We are grateful for the continued support of our patrons and the YPL Board of Trustees. We also wish to express our thanks to our elected officials, who view public libraries as integral to the quality of life in our community.
CRESTWOOD BRANCH QUARTERLY REPORT - OCTOBER, NOVEMBER & DECEMBER 2019

It was a solid fall quarter for us. Our cozy library retains its place as the beloved historic heart of the community. Through the ebb and flow of the season, patrons have been in and out of the library to fulfill their recreational, education and information literacy needs. Joining our strong customer service oriented Crestwood Crew are part-time clerks Katie Ciriello and Daniela Ranallo. We bid adieu to part-time clerks Theodora Aina (her husband transferred out of state) and Michael Allen.

Head Custodian Russell Martinez is getting quotes for new windows and window treatments for our building. Minor but very helpful improvements included shampooing of the children’s room rug, water fountain area scouting, and the hanging of indoor/outdoor seasonal decorations. Part-time Custodian Luis Barcelo continues to work hard to spruce up our building inside and out. IT improvements include Carlos Figueroa’s November Staff Training on the new eVanced System and phase one of the WLS inventory on our network equipment in an ongoing project to improve network services.

Programming continues to be at the core of our commitment to serving our community in their literary journey of discovery, enjoyment and personal growth. People of all age ranges had an opportunity to participate in cultural exploration and celebration during the Hispanic Heritage, Italian Heritage, and Holiday Celebrations around the world programs this quarter. Once again, the library held court for trick or treaters as a stop on their route, a bathroom break, along with a chance to read a book/hear a Halloween story and create a Halloween Craft. We continue to help close the digital literacy gap via our technology program highlights including PC Cruzin’ and Help Desks tailored to meet individual library patron needs, which has included assisting in personal memoir writing, job force re-entry and mastery of personal technology device use. Our most successful intergenerational program this quarter was our Super Mario Party (bringing digital and traditional literacy together) which was requested by one of our youngest library patrons. Our wellness offerings remain strong with weekly Yoga programs and expanded to include Yoga Nidra and the Children’s StoryYoga. We restructured the Paws for Reading program to include some one on one reading time with Andy the therapy dog.

Crestwood Crew representation at Staff Development Day, the YPL Barnes & Noble December Book Fair and the Phase 3 Yonkers on the Move Mayor’s Recognition Event at City Hall was strong. Library Trainee Justine Osterman continued her Queens College Library School courses and has been conducting successful Storycraft and 3-D Printing programs. Librarian I Philip Poggiali continues his LIU Human Resources coursework, has been conducting many technology Help Desks and has been working with the homeschooling community during our Friday art, science and writing enrichment programs.

Community Connections this quarter included overseeing local Boy Scout Sean Gaughan’s Little Free Libraries project via the restocking of materials in the Little Libraries around Crestwood. In that same vein, we are supporting local Girl Scout Olivia Reduto in her Gold Award Project, “Building Better Bags” by collecting gently used books and cloth bags for redistribution. Rockefeller Preserve’s Kim Costaldo continues to partner with us and offered a fascinating workshop on Tree Identification and Hibernation. Crestwood Historical Society held a meeting in November on the topic of “Researching the Castle Around the Corner: History, Memories, and NIGHTMARES in Sunnyside Park” with local Crestwood Freyer Family members co-presenting. Yonkers on the Move Phase 2 recognition ceremony was held at the library after one of our local Crestwood walks. Crestwood rose to the challenge and collected for the Mayor’s Youth Advisory Board Food Drive and also the Pajama Stuff a Bus Program. Under my guidance and mentorship, local Yonkers Resident and Syracuse University MLIS Graduate Student Stephanie McGrail. completed observation hours and projects for her Reference and Information Literacy Service Course for which she obtained an “A” this semester. We are happy to help grow more local librarians!

Friends of Crestwood Library (FOCL) continue to meet monthly and provide co-funding and curation for programs. They successfully collected their 2018 Yonkers-East Yonkers Rotary Grant for $750.00. Under the guidance of Kay Donohue and Pat Manning, the newsletter has been a regular monthly occurrence. Treasurer Lois Heitner continues to deal with IRS and 501c3 status with drive and dedication. Catherine McGibney has joined the FOCL Board as Homeschooling Liaison. Cathy Walsh continues to facilitate quality classical music programming opportunities, collaborating with Heidi Chisholm from Hackley School and Music Students from Sarah Lawrence College. FOCL sponsored the Holiday Breakfast that brought together staff from all three YPL Branches, trustees, friends, and community members and kicked off the holiday season with good vibes and cheer that ended the calendar year on a high note.

In October Crown boiler repair performed an annual boiler tune-up. Also in late October my staff collected and stored at Will all the outdoor furniture. In early November Stanley Security was called to repair our alarm, they replaced a bad power transformer. A few days later the access and control panels went down, Stanley Security then determined the entire system needed replacing. Parts for the system have been ordered and will be installed ASAP. In this quarter Mr. Chimney performed a thorough chimney sweep.

Tech. Processing continued ordering, cataloging, processing, and linking materials for patron use during this quarter.

Some of the issues with Evergreen, B&T, and WLS have been resolved. This makes it easier for departments to place orders processed by B&T and have them arrive processed, linked and shelf ready as they had been in the past. This is only for new orders. Anything ordered before November will still have to be linked in house if B&T processed the item. Hopefully this will all straighten out as the orders continue into the New Year.

Tech. Processing provides monthly budget balances for each department so that they can reconcile their orders and allotments. All departments use these monthly budget allotments to order their new materials.

Our department answers any questions that Librarians and staff may have about their orders or vendors. We provide whatever information is needed and try to accommodate all requests.
