THE LEADING VIDEO STREAMING SERVICE
IN CLASSICAL MUSIC, OPERA, DANCE, AND JAZZ

PUBLIC LIBRARIES

« In 2007, when we started at the Verbier Festival in Switzerland, words like "streaming" and "webcast" were almost unknown to the public. It was such a tremendous challenge and we were so excited to share with the entire world the talent of those amazing musicians. It was a world premiere, a turning point for the sector, and we received immediate and enthusiastic support from the artists and the public. medici.tv was born.

In 2012, we launched our offer for libraries. Making music available to as many people as possible has been at the heart of medici.tv's project since its very beginning. We believe that music has the unique and extraordinary power to connect people from all walks of life, no matter their origins, beliefs, or socioeconomic backgrounds. There are no borders in music, and we firmly believe in the words of the great visual artist Louise Bourgeois: "Art is a Guaranty of Sanity".

Ten years later, it is more important than ever to promote unity, generosity, dedication, and excellence, and we know there is no better way to do so than through music.

After hundreds of millions of views, bringing the thrill of the "Live Now" label to screens across the world in more than 3,000 live events, and curating the largest and most beautiful classical music audiovisual library in the world, we are proud and delighted to keep on sharing with you the enchanting and continuously evolving adventure of classical music.

Thanks to all of you who have been and will continue to be part of this unforgettable journey. »

Donizetti's Lucrezia Borgia

John Pascoe (stage director), Riccardo Frizza (conductor) - With Renée Fleming (Lucrezia Borgia) - San Francisco Opera

ABOUT

Donizetti's Lucrezia Borgia

John Pascoe (stage director), Riccardo Frizza (conductor) - With Renée Fleming (Lucrezia Borgia) - San Francisco Opera

Renée Fleming, "America's most-loved and most-lauded opera singer" (The Times, London) returns to the San Francisco Opera, bringing passion and outstanding virtuosity to the title role of Gaetano Donizetti's masterpiece, joined on stage by Michael Fabiano, Vitalij Kowaljow and Elizabeth DeShong.

In Gaetano Donizetti's two act opera, Lucrezia Borgia (libretto by Felice Romani, based on Victor Hugo's play of the same name), a notorious femme fatale renowned for her ruthless pursuit of power reveals poignant vulnerability when she comes face to face with her long-lost son, Gennaro.

Presented in 2011, this captivating and elegant production from the San Francisco Opera is led by internationally-acclaimed Italian conductor, Riccardo Frizza.
