

In conjunction with the IRS, we offer free tax return preparation to anyone who needs it.

AARP Foundation Tax-Aide volunteers are trained to help you file a variety of income tax forms and schedules. In certain situations, however, our volunteers may be unable to provide assistance. The Volunteer Protection Act requires that our volunteers stay within the scope of tax law and policies set by the IRS and AARP Foundation. Here's a guide to what our Tax-Aide volunteers can and can't do.

We can prepare most returns with:

- Wages, interest, dividends, capital gains/losses, unemployment compensation, pensions and other retirement income, Social Security benefits, among other types of income.
- Self-employment income, with limits.
- Most income reported on Form 1099-NEC, Form 1099-K, or Form 1099-MISC.
- Schedule K-1 that includes only interest, dividends, capital gains/losses, or royalties.
- IRA contributions — deductible or not.
- Health savings accounts (HSA).
- Certain adjustments to gross income and itemized deductions, including noncash contributions to charity that total no more than $5,000.
- Qualified business income deduction, with limits.
- Cancellation of nonbusiness credit card debt.
- Most credits, including earned income, education, child/dependent care, simplified method foreign tax credit, among others.
- Repayment of first-time homebuyer credit.
- Estimated tax payments.
- Injured spouse allocation, depending on state.
- Amendments to filed returns.
- Tax returns for certain prior years.
