YONKERS
PUBLIC LIBRARY

What is this service? How does it work?

- The Library-by-Mail is a service of the Yonkers Public Library that provides library materials through the mail for people who are unable to leave their home due to a temporary or permanent disability.

Who qualifies?

- Any Yonkers Public Library card-holder of any age who has a visual impairment or physical disability and is homebound, regardless of whether the disability is long-term or short-term.

What we will do:

- We will send library materials to your home, through the mail, free of charge.
- Materials are delivered in a re-usable mailbag, which also includes a return address label and return postage. When you're done, simply put the materials back in the bag, affix the address label and postage, and give that package to your mail carrier to return to us.
- Once one set of materials is returned, we will send you another, based on either your specific request or your general preferences.

What should you do?

- Fill out the attached application for Library-by-Mail service.
